

CHRISTOPHER LEE PHAN

PO Box 622 • Westmont IL 60559 • <http://www.chrisphan.com/>
phan03@alumni.lclark.edu • 541-335-1775

EDUCATION

- University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.
 - Ph.D. in mathematics, June 2009.
 - M.S. in mathematics, June 2005.
- Lewis & Clark College, Portland, Oregon.
 - B.A. in mathematics and communication, May 2003.
 - * Awards: Summa cum laude, department honors in communication, Phi Beta Kappa.
 - * Competed in forensics (speech and debate).

EXPERIENCE

- Mathematics Ph.D. student, Department of Mathematics, University of Oregon, September 2003–June 2009.
 - Won Borsting Graduate Student Award, 2008 for exceptional scholastic achievement.
 - Authored or co-authored four research articles to be submitted to peer-reviewed journals.
 - Presented at major conferences as well as internally.
 - Served on the department's Graduate Affairs Committee.
 - Organized algebra seminar for graduate students.
 - Wrote and defended my dissertation: Koszul and generalized Koszul properties for noncommutative graded algebras.
- Graduate teaching fellow, Department of Mathematics, University of Oregon, September 2003–June 2009.
 - Taught 21 sections of lower-division undergraduate math classes.
 - Delivered lectures.
 - Wrote and graded quizzes and exams.
 - Used WebAssign and WeBWorK computerized homework scoring systems.
 - Supervised undergraduate paper markers.
 - Assigned final grades.
- Math tutor, Math Skills Center, Lewis & Clark College, September 2001–May 2003.
 - Provided one-on-one tutoring to undergraduates.

OTHER QUALIFICATIONS

- Extensive experience with \LaTeX .
- Experience with Unix, Linux, Windows, MacOS, MS Office, OpenOffice, SVN, Sage, Mathematica, HTML.
- Authored problems (using Perl) for the WebAssign and WeBWorK computerized homework scoring systems.